

Research Matchmaking Workshop
 Center for Global Development
 2055 L St NW, Washington, DC 20036
 May 3rd and 4th, 2018

Workshop Agenda

Thursday, May 3

8:00-8:30 AM	Registration and Continental Breakfast
8:30-9:00 AM	Welcome & Introductory Remarks Michael Ross, University of California, Los Angeles Jihae Hong, PRG
9:00-9:30 AM	Keynote Speech: From Research Partnership to Policy Impact Phil Keefer, Inter-American Development Bank
9:30-10:00 AM	Case Study: Mining & Accountability in South Africa Darin Christensen, University of California, Los Angeles
10:00-10:30 AM	Tea Break
10:30-11:30 AM	Major Questions and Existing Evidence Laura Paler, University of Pittsburg Graeme Blair, University of California, Los Angeles
11:30-Noon	Introduction of Participants
Noon-1:00 PM	Lunch
1:00-2:00 PM	Breakout Session 1: What are the program's goals?
2:00-2:45 PM	Introduction to Experimental Evaluations Cesi Cruz, University of British Columbia
2:45-3:15 PM	Tea Break
3:15-4:15 PM	Breakout Session 2: How should the program be evaluated?
4:15-4:45 PM	Wrap Up for Day 1
4:45-5:15 PM	Break
5:30 -	Happy Hour and Dinner Ristorante i Ricchi 1220 19th Street NW Washington, DC 20036 (202) 835-0459

Friday, May 4th

8:00-8:30 AM	Registration and Continental Breakfast
8:30-8:45 AM	Recap of Day 1 Michael & Jihae
8:45-9:30 AM	Breakout Session 3: Refining the research design
9:30-10:00 AM	Group Presentation of Research Designs
10:00-10:30 AM	Tea Break
10:30-11:30 AM	Panel Discussion: How Has Impact Evaluation Affected Grants and Policymaking? How Should It?  Panelists Joseph Asunka, William and Flora Hewlett Foundation Suneeta Kaimal, Natural Resource Governance Institute Norman Eisen, Brookings Institution Moderated by Michael Ross
11:30-12:30	Next Steps & Closing Thoughts
12:30	Lunch